

Pulaski Citizen.

F. O. McCORD, Local Editor.

PULASKI, TENN.,

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 23, 1893.

A Bargain.

We have a No. 1 Remington Navy Repeat for sale at cost—$25.00.

Also a Shaw and Clark Family Sewing Machine in good order, for sale at cost—$35.00.

Also a No. 1 double case Silver Watch, at less than cost—$20.00.

These are great bargains, offered only for the money.

Important to Physicians.

The Physicians of Giles county are earnestly requested to meet in Pulaski on the 1st Monday in January, 1894, for the transaction of important Professional business.

The meeting will convene at the office of DR. GRANT & ALEXANDER, at 11 o'clock

A. M.

No paper would have been issued this week had it not been for a number of legal advertisements which had to be kept alive.

Just received at L. Rosenau's a large lot of Ladies' Cloaks on consignment, which we are selling at 50 per cent less than our former prices.

CLAIM AGENCY.—The attention of the reader is directed to the advertisement in this paper of Gen John O'Neill, claim agent at Nashville. It will be noticed that he is inclined to put his services down to a fair per cent, charging much less than other agents, and he is said to have been very successful in prosecuting claims against the Government.

8th Volume Complete.

This number of the Citizen completes the 8th volume. Next week we will enter upon the new volume and the new year, and we hope that before the issuance of another paper all of our present subscribers will come forward promptly and renew. Nearly all subscriptions expire with this number, and we cannot possibly furnish our friends with a paper without pay in advance.

Only one more paper after this will be sent to those who fail to renew.

Wanton and Malicious.

The wanton destruction of property on Monday night last by a set of street loafers and drunkards, was mean and devilish.

Men have a legal right to get drunk in Christmas times, and we do not object to any man who has lost respect for himself and for his family relations, to indulge in his heart's content in the maddening bowl; nor do we say aught against legitimate amusement during the holidays, but we do claim that other men have some rights of person and property that ought to be respected. We cannot, for the life of us, see where or how there can be any fun in ripping open cotton bales, overturning houses and breaking up other men's property.

There would have been more profit, more fun and equally as much honor in setting fire to a man's house, to plunder it while burning. We speak thus plainly because we are personally as well as generally interested. The same reckless crowd that destroyed other property broke into fragments an imposing stone belonging to this office worth $15. Now we would like to know what sort of a man that was in this?

It may have given great pleasure to the devilish crew of the man who did it, but there is very little fun in it to us. $15 are not made by us as easily, and in an short time as it took to destroy this stone.

On Christmas day it was actually dangerous for a lady to be on the square in Pulaski, and disgusting to most any decent person. The square was crowded with drunk people, black and white.

We are informed, from Washington, says the Nashville Banner, that in view of the strength which the movements for Territorial Governments are assuming, the Conservatives are taking alarm, and have sent messengers and dispatches into the South to induce the Legislatures to ratify the amendment, promising immediate admision.

Pork.—The Columbia Herald of last Saturday says: "Within the last cold spell, pork has been very plenty in the market, -ranging downward from 8 to 7 1/2. The downward tendency of all the provision markets makes buyers easy and slow of trade. Persons who engaged at 12 1/2 and 10 cents missed the figures largely."

The Tennessee delegation in the United States House of Representatives occupy places on the following committees: On Territories, Mr. Cooper; on Elections, Mr.

Stokes; on Indian Reservations, Mr. Lewich; on Public Expenditures, Mr. Arrell; on Mining, Mr. Taylor; on District of Columbia, Mr. Maynard; on Southern Railroads, (select) Mr. Maynard, Chairman.

There is a constant succession of reports of frauds and swindles, of every possible description, from all parts of the country.

Smuggling, defalcations, revenue frauds, illicit distillation of spirits, and evasion of the law in every conceivable way, are now the burden of most of the news columns of a daily journal. Either we are now in a condition of extraordinary wickedness, or else the concealed villainies of a long period have all been suddenly uncovered to the light of day.—Banner.

Two newspapers of Texas say it is becoming difficult to decide whether beef or cotton hold supremacy in that State. Texas raises large quantities of both, and having been but little affected by the war, continues to grow in prosperity. Stock-raising and the exportation of cattle make fortunes in a short time for many Texans, and it is said that the transportation of cattle is now one of the most lucrative branches of Southern trade. Northern vessels, unable to earn remunerative freights elsewhere, find it a good paying business to carry cattle from Texas to other portions of the South.

The Selma (Ala.) Times, of the 13th, says: After his late Northern excursion, General J. B. Johnson is now with us—we hope for the winter at least. His healthy, vigorous physiognomy betokens the full enjoyment of the Indian summer of life.

Such lives are not without the fruits and melior hues attending that period. He does not believe the Northern mind yet given over to reprobacy, but thinks the good sense of the nation will prevail over the extreme views of those who would degrade us.

DEATHS.

DIED.—At his residence near Prospect, of pneumonia, on Wednesday the 16th inst.

Rev. Henry J. Brown, aged 62 years. He was one of our oldest and best citizens, and for many years a well-known member of the Methodist church.
